

LOCAL MATTERS.

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 13.

For this section fair weather, winds shifting to easterly, warmer, light rain Tuesday.

ODD FELLOWS.—The Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Virginia, will meet in annual session in the city of Richmond to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. J. B. Blanks, of Petersburg, and J. B. Ley, of Danville, Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, will submit a report showing white Old Fellows on the globe Jan. 1st, 1891. Indorsement of the 695,000; Manchester Unity, England, 708,473. Total number of members, 1,403,473—over one quarter of a million more than reported by the next largest national society; increase of members 34,750; total relief, $168,435 15; total revenue $40,255 66. Grand Master W. F. Larrabee, of Hampton, will report the institution of twelve new lodges in Virginia and a large increase in membership. The two lodges in this city will report about 200 members, and will be represented by D. R. Starbuck, George S. Finch, W. W. Edwards, E. Lyles and others, who left here to-day to be in attendance. To-morrow night a concert will be tendered the Grand Lodge at the Mount Academy of Music, at which time an address will be delivered by Hon. Chas. M. Bushee, of South Carolina, the recently elected Grand Sir of the order, on the subject of "The Principles and Objects of Odd Fellowship."

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with seven prisoners and two lodges at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

A white woman for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $1.50.

Ellis Day, Jas. Harris, Peter Simms, Fred Jones, John Bryant, Will Washington and B. Johnson, colored boys, arrested for disorderly conduct and for playing crap, were fined $1 each.

Jerry Simms, Wm. Harris, Geo. King and Wm. Price, arrested on the same charge, were sent to jail for 10 days in default of the payment of their fines.

Albert Richardson, colored, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2.50.

A youth, charged with insulting language to a white girl, was dismissed with a reprimand.

John Robinson and Samuel T. Bowling, both colored, charged with selling liquor without a license, had their cases continued.

The police officers say they are determined to break up the practice of selling liquor without a license and will keep a sharp lookout for all such offenders.

ENTERPRISE OF WHOLESALE DEALERS.—The spirit and enterprise of the wholesale houses of this city in their several branches was never more active than at present. The firm of E. J. Miller & Son, one of the very oldest and most reliable in this country, have a number of good men on the road, and one at the Howard House, in Baltimore, with a full and complete line of crockery and glassware, and samples. They are selling to the merchants from Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and other States, who are now laying in their usual spring supplies of such merchandise. Should the Alexandria dealers in hardware, drugs, dry goods, boots and shoes follow the example set by the grocery, crockery, fertilizer, coal, salt, lumber and various other established houses, this city would shortly have a record unequalled by any city of its size in the South for volume of business.

THE WEATHER.—About 5:30 o'clock on Saturday evening there was a shower of rain, soon after which the sun came out and the western skies were brilliantly lighted, while in the east a beautiful double rainbow formed. During this time there were seen several flashes of lightning in the southwest, followed by thunder. About 8 o'clock there was another thunder storm, the flashes of lightning being very vivid and some of the peals of thunder quite severe, while for a time the rain fell in torrents. Later the skies cleared and the moon and stars shone. Yesterday the skies were overcast most of the day, but in the evening the wind got around to the northwest, when the clouds were dissipated, since which time the weather has been clear and springlike.

FAIR CLOSED.—The fair of the Knights of the Golden Eagle closed Saturday night. The selling for the various articles was as follows: Ladies' gold watch, Miss Katie Wynn, K. G. E. pin, K. T. Fowler; Good Temper pin, N. Bush; crayon portrait, C. Gardner; I. C. R. pin, George Stearns; Golden Eagle sword, A. D. Deaton; Old Fellow ring, Wm. Ferguson. The fair closed with an auction. During the evening the first took place in which several became involved, and which caused much excitement. No one was seriously hurt, however.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—At the service yesterday morning, Rev. Mr. Vance read the annual report of the church for the year ending March 31, 1891. The membership at present is 371, forty-six new members having been added since April 1, 1890. There are 367 Sunday school scholars. The contributions of the past year aggregate $8,000, of which $1,466 was for foreign missions and $6,534 for home missions and education. These reports go the Chesapeake Presbytery, which meets in Warrenton the 14th of this month. Asst. K. Kemper is the delegate from the church in this city.

YESTERDAY.—The weather yesterday morning was cloudy and threatening, but in the evening the skies cleared and the sun shone beautifully. The day was an uneventful and quiet one, the order of the city having been well preserved. The usual number of strangers came from Washington, and in the evening many persons were on streets enjoying a stroll. The churches were all well attended at both the morning and evening services.

OPERA HOUSE.—To-night the four act melodrama entitled "Shadow Detective," will be presented by Dan A. Kelly and his excellent company. The play is full of interesting and sensational situations, with an amusing vein running through it that holds the interest from the opening to the close. This is not the first appearance of Mr. Kelly in this city, and he is a favorite here. He will always find a cordial welcome awaiting him.

PERSONAL.—Prof. E. L. Schaaf, of this city, and Miss Mary L. White, of Loudoun county, will be married to-night at Hamilton. Rev. H. Suter was prevented by a severe cold from officiating at Christ Church yesterday.

Gen. W. H. Payne was in the city to-day. Attorney General H. T. Scott was in the city to-day.

CONFIRMATION.—Bishop Whittle, of the Episcopal diocese of Virginia, visited this city on Saturday and on that night preached and confirmed a class of eight at St. Paul's Church. Yesterday the Bishop held confirmation services in Fairfax county and to-night he will confirm a class at Grace Church, in this city.

CORPORATION COURT.—Owing to the indisposition of Judge Norton, who is confined to his home with the grippe, the opening of the April term of the Corporation Court was postponed to to-day (Till) Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. At 1 o'clock on that day the civil docket will be called.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A colored normal institute will be held in this city in July.

A magnificent double rainbow spanned the sky on Saturday evening.

It is said that a number of houses are being erected in this city for the building of which no permits have been issued.

We have received an invitation to attend the banquet to be given by the Chamber of Commerce of Manchester on the 17th inst.

A banquet of the Washington Alumni of the University of Virginia was given at the Normandie in Washington on Saturday night.

At Hagerstown, Md., on Saturday, Judge Alvey heard arguments in the case of Samuel Brady vs. the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. The counsel of the bondholders of '64, prayed the court to restrain the Brady administrators from selling the canal properties in Alleghany county, Md., and to satisfy a judgment of $40,000. Judge Alvey held the case for trial.

The funeral of Mrs. Anne E. Taylor took place from her late residence on Pitt street this evening. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Norton and the pall bearers were Messrs. E. L. Daingerfield, W. H. Herbert, J. M. Johnson, P. B. Hoar, C. F. Lee and Dr. Keuzie Johns.

Superintendent of Police Debie is now engaged in grading and placing trucks at the intersection of Payne and Queen streets, and Mr. James Mansfield is erecting four comfortable frame buildings on Payne street, between Princess and Queen.

The joint committee on general laws and streets will meet to-night to consider the application of the Washington Ferry Company for the erection of a building at the foot of King street.

Mrs. Priggett Hanahan, formerly of this city, died in Washington on Friday last, aged 73 years, and her remains were brought here yesterday for interment.

Mr. John Croghan, who was recently elected janitor of Washington school building, has declined to accept the position.

Richard Madella, a well-known colored citizen, was stricken with paralysis while attending services at Roberts Chapel yesterday.

Mrs. Beanie Star Keifer will deliver a lecture in the M. P. Church to-morrow night at 7:30 p. m. Her subject will be "Quacks."

The base ball season opened in Washington to-day.

The old established firm of Josiah H. D. Smoot & Son offers to the trade at reduced prices five million feet of lumber of all kinds, five thousand doors, three thousand windows of sash, and one million shingles. This firm is shipping large quantities of building material to the surrounding country daily and being the oldest established lumber yard in Virginia has justly gained a reputation for fair dealing.

To people fond of good things, Mr. John Stone, at the waterfront, is a blessing, and not one in disguise either, as, in or out of season, he always has fresh oysters, clams and crabs.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Mrs. Mehala Vansickler died near Mount Gleed, in Loudoun county, a few days since in her 90th year.

The remains of Gen. John R. Cooke were buried with an imposing military demonstration in Richmond yesterday.

In the County Court at Charlottesville on Friday the German tramp, Mike Sultzer, was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for placing obstructions on the track of the Virginia Midland railroad near Red Hill station on the night of the 4th instant with a view of wrecking a train.

The next generation that will startle Richmond will be a breach of promise suit. The case will probably be made public this week. Both of the parties have been well known in society. The lady does not reside in Richmond, but the gentleman is a prominent merchant in that city.

At Judith Dam, near Lynchburg, Mrs. C. H. Greenwood, who was on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Doo Marshall, in Bedford, started home on Saturday with her sister in a buggy. On reaching Judith creek the two ladies found that the stream was much swollen by the heavy rains of Saturday, but still ventured to cross it. In doing so their vehicle was overturned and Mrs. Marshall was drowned, but Mrs. Greenwood, after considerable effort, was finally rescued from the creek by Mr. Robert Barker, who happened to be passing at the time of the accident.

Hiram W. Blanchard, the Abolitionist, died at his home in Neponset, Mass., this morning aged 80.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The stock market opened the new week this morning with considerable activity, and a renewal of the strong tone which marked the dealing during the greater portion of last week. First prices were all from 1/4 to 3/8 per cent higher than the final figures of Saturday, and the early demand was sufficient to cause material advances in many stocks before it was satisfied. The general list was invariably strong, but rose only fractional amounts. The late trading was marked by increased animation and the best prices were fully maintained the market at 11 o'clock being and strong at the advance.

There is a constant demand for Flour, well distributed as to grade, and there is no change to note in figures to day; the markets, however, are very strong and firm. What is again in the hands of manipulators, and there is talk of a May "corner" having provoked a spirit of speculation; conservative dealers, however, have but little faith in it, and are buying cautiously and not anticipating their wants; we quote the range for all sorts at from 100 to 115; to choice longberry is coming to this market. Corn is steady at 79s 1/2 in bulk. Oats 60s 6 1/2. Eggs 12s 1/2. Butter 17s 1/2 and 18s 1/2. Potatoes, Pork, Poultry, all kinds of produce, Millfeed, Hay and Straw are scarce. Veal Calves and Fish are dull.
